FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Wouldn't you know, we get a snowstorm just before our local schools celebrate 'Mid-Winter Recess.'

Right on cue! And to think that after last Sunday's 12 noon Mass, I heard (then saw) some geese flying north. Signs of things to come. There are so many signs; which signs should I take to heart?

Throughout the world, our Church celebrated World Day of the Sick on February 11th, the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. I had received some water from Lourdes years ago from a parishioner who had traveled there to find healing. Travelers to Lourdes have told me that the sick who have come for healing are at the center of nearly everything. They share in the prayer, pastoral care and compassion of the people who live there and minister to them. They are full and active participants in the liturgy celebrated by the community... for the Eucharist is at the center of everything.

When our parish community gathers to celebrate the Eucharist at the Saturday Vigil and on Sunday we bring ourselves and our needs to the Lord. We are graced, renewed and nourished for the journey. Even in the midst of our brokenness and need, we are reminded that God's grace and love can be experienced in so many ways. (Sometimes we may even remember how much we are loved by God.)

Faith, seen as both life-giving and life-sustaining, leads us to consider that witnessing to illness shows one more way that our lives are redeemed through the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. (Lent is just a few weeks away... please keep this thought in mind.)

As you walk and pray with the sick and the broken, may we see a different expression of God's love that opens our heart to the depth and breadth of God's love. May we go out and love the world in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Peace, Fr. Joe

PS - On Saturday, March 16th Blessed Sacrament will host the Annual St. Patrick's Day Mass at 9 am to begin a day of celebrating the Feast of the Patron Saint of Ireland. Bishop Scharfenberger will be our presider and homilist. Music will include a pipe and drum band, harps and, of course, our organist, Ed Savoy. A reception will follow in the gym (yes, there will be soda bread). Spread the word and please plan to attend. If you can help as an usher or help serve at the reception, please sign the tab at the bottom of the other side of the bulletin and put it in the collection. Many thanks!
