

PARISH MINISTRY NEWS

*Attention crafters! Our annual Family Festival will be held on September 27th. Once again, we will have a table of handmade crafts. Last year, we had many beautiful items made by our talented parishioners. Also, if you know someone else who would donate their creations, please spread the word!

*The Holy Name Society’s next meeting and drawing will be held on Wednesday, June 4th at 7 p.m. in the church. All parish men are invited. Note: $1 raffle tickets are available in the rectory or from any HNS officer. Also, unused mailed tickets may be returned to the rectory.

FOOD PANTRY

Please note that we have adjusted our procedures so that the line to get into the pantry is now set up inside.

*Our food pantry will receive a $1 donation for every $2.50 reusable Hannaford Fight Hunger Bag that is sold during the entire month of May at the Hannaford store located at 96 Wolf Rd. (Windsor Plaza), Colonie!

Some volunteers are needed to help keep the flow of guests moving smoothly between check-in and pick-up stations. Volunteer your time anywhere from one day a month to every day the pantry is open! Each pantry day sees about 40 guests. Contact our parish office if you can help!

*We always in need the following items: feminine hygiene products, toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, disposable, and laundry detergent (liquid or pods). We also currently need: jelly, instant potatoes, and chili.

WHAT DOES THE HOLY SPIRIT MEAN TO YOU?

by Lisanne Jensen

If someone asked you, “What is the Holy Spirit?”, how would you respond? Identifying “God the Father” and “God the Son” (Jesus) might seem a bit easier than describing who the Holy Spirit is. We may think about symbols associated with the Spirit, such as a dove, a flame, or wind. The Holy Spirit also has several titles: “Helper,” “Paraclete” (which means comforter), “Advocate,” “Spirit of Truth,” and “Spirit of God,” to name a few.

This weekend’s Gospel (from St. John) provides anticipation for Pentecost, when we celebrate the Holy Spirit descending on Jesus’s apostles (often called the “birthday” of the Church). The word Pentecost originates from the Greek word meaning “50th,” which is fitting because Pentecost always takes place 50 days after Easter (this year, it’s Sunday, June 8th). Pentecost marks the ongoing role of the Holy Spirit in guiding and empowering us along our faith journeys.

Francis Chan, an American author, teacher, and Protestant minister, wrote a book called Forgotten God to explore “Why do we need the Holy Spirit?”, “What is our awareness of the Holy Spirit?”, and “How has God called us to more through the Spirit?”. We can reflect on these questions in our own lives, especially through scripture:

- The first verses of Genesis reveal the Holy Spirit’s presence: “In the beginning, when God created the heavens and the earth — and the earth was without form or shape, with darkness over the abyss and a mighty wind sweeping over the waters ...” (Genesis 1:1-2).
- When Jesus was baptized, he rose from the water “and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove [and] coming upon him” (Matthew 3:16).

- In John’s Gospel, Jesus describes the Holy Spirit to Nicodemus: “The wind blows where it wills, and you can hear the sound it makes, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes; so it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit” (John 3:8).
- When the Samaritan woman at the well asks Jesus about worshipping God, he replies, “God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth” (John 4:24).
- Later in John’s Gospel, we also hear, “And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever — the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you” (John 14:15-17).
- This weekend’s Gospel also describes the Holy Spirit: “The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you” (John 14:26).
- St. Paul’s letter to the Galatians lists the fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, faithfulness, generosity, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22).

Please watch this section of our bulletin for more information to come about this summer’s VBS. *If you’re an adult who enjoys working with young people and might like to help with VBS, please contact our Faith Formation office.
